Far Horizons Collection

Far Horizons is a collection of painterly wallcoverings by Western Australian artist Desmond Sweeney, created in collaboration with Milton & King. Drawn from original landscapes and seascapes, the collection captures the natural world through movement, atmosphere and the changing quality of light.

Across sweeping ocean scenes, distant Australian ridgelines, wooded valleys and softened coastlines, Desmond's expressive brushwork remains visible, giving each design the presence of an original painting translated for the wall.

Swell, Great Divide, Valewood and Longshore each offer a different view of the horizon, moving between expansive scenery and more abstract interpretations of land and water. Natural grasscloth adds texture and variation, while coordinating surfaces extend the palette beyond the mural itself.

Far Horizons brings art, material and landscape together across residential, hospitality and commercial interiors.

Swell Mural

Swell captures the gathering movement of the ocean through sweeping brushwork, mineral colour and a softened horizon. Drawn from Desmond Sweeney's original seascape, the mural retains the energy and texture of the painted surface, bringing the changing atmosphere of the sea into the interior with a broad, immersive sense of scale.

Great Divide Mural

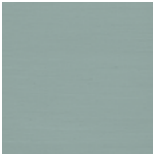

Great Divide looks across an expansive Australian landscape, where distant ridgelines, open country and shifting light recede towards the horizon. Desmond Sweeney's expressive brushwork gives the scene depth and movement, preserving the atmosphere of the original painting while allowing the landscape to unfold across the wall.

Valewood Mural

Valewood draws you into a wooded landscape of softened foliage, distant hills and atmospheric depth. Desmond Sweeney's visible brushwork gives the scene an expressive, painted character, while the composition creates a gentle sense of distance that makes the landscape feel expansive without losing its intimacy.

Longshore Mural

Longshore sits between landscape and abstraction, where shoreline, sky and water dissolve into broad passages of colour. Printed on natural grasscloth, the design gains subtle tonal variation and organic texture, bringing another dimension to Desmond Sweeney's expressive coastal artwork.
